

ICU Rotary Peace Seminar

The Disturbing Reality of Human Trafficking in Japan

Did you know that human-trafficking/modern-slavery exists in Japan? Japan is actually sharply criticized by both the civil sector and the international community that human trafficking is not only widespread here, but also needs much more general/governmental attention and efforts to solve it. Come and find out the issues in this matter and what we can do to eradicate this evil phenomena.

Date & Time January 16 (Tue.) 2018 14:00~15:30

Venue H-106, the 1st floor of ICU University Hall
International Christian University

Speaker Mariko Yamaoka Director, Not For Sale Japan

Language English

Admission Free

Reservation Email: japan@notforsalecampaign.org

About Not For Sale Japan (NFSJ)

NFSJ is the Japan chapter of the California-based charity, Not For Sale. It was started in 2011 by Mariko after she translated David Batstone's Not For Sale into Japanese. NFSJ mainly focuses on awareness raising by giving lectures, film screenings, etc. It is a member of, and actively participating in, the two national networks: Japan Network Against Trafficking In Persons (JNATIP) and Citizens' Network to Build a Sustainable Society through Responsible Consumption (SSRC).

NFSJ Website

NOT FOR SALE